

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

S^r Will'm Ludlow of Stoake Saye in com. Salop K^t.^a . . .

^a William Ludlow died seized of the Manor of Stokesay in 1474—Ech. 14 Edw. IV., No. 33. This may have been the William named above, or his son, or grandson.

* This is the lady whose undoubted existence, if it could be proved, would settle the Grey de Powis Peerage claims. Sir Roger Kynaston, Knt., of Horlley, married Richard Lord Grey de Powis's only sister, but he was alleged to have left a daughter, the above Elizabeth. In [G. 18 Salop] at the Coll. of Arms is the first mention known of such a lady—that is the original copy of the above pedigree of 1884 (page 61), and her name is an addition in a different hand and ink. See 'Feudal Barons of Powys' by Morris C. Jones, p. 122. The earlier writing was as above, "Daughter of Robert Corbet, Knt.," and the Heralds on examination rejected "Eliza, da. of Rich. Grey, Lord Powis," as spurious.

† In Harl. 615 he is made son of Thomas Ludlow and Katherine Farley. This is evidently an error, for in the same pedigree, but in another hand, she is said to have had no issue.

* Another pedigree, in Harl. MS. 615, folio 263^b, agrees with Harl. MS. 1396, but the name is spelled throughout "Warnerton," and, on the monument in Worfield Church to Sir George Bromley, his wife is described as "daughter and sole heire of John Wannerton of Hallon, Gent."

Sir George Bromley, Knt., of Hallon, or Hawne, in Worfield parish, is said in the Bromley pedigree (antes) to have married the daughter and heir of John Waverton, gent. In 38 Henry VIII., 1546, John Waverton did homage for the rectory of Albrighton (Originalia, 5 p. 38 Henry VIII., rot. 20); and, in 38 Eliz., 1596, Jane Bromley, widow, was seized of the same rectory (Originalia, 1 p. 38 Eliz., rot. 103). The pedigree occurs in the 1684 Visitation of Shropshire with the same arms, and the name spelled "Warnerton."

Further, in 1571, Robert Cook, Clarenceux, exemplified by patent these same arms to John Wannerton of Hallon, Salop, descended from Wannerton, co. Worcester (Visitation of London, 1634, vol. ii., p. 361). Wannerton is a small hamlet in the parish of Kidderminster, where the surname existed in benefactions to the poor so late as 1644. (Nash's 'History of Worcestershire,' ii., pp. 39, 321.)

Hugh Wyrrall. = . . . da. of . . . Knottisworth Joane Wyrrall.
 A [Knottsworth] of M'kett Reasin.

* We cannot clearly trace the connection of this family with Shropshire; but in the records of the Mercers' Guild of Shrewsbury a "Rog' Wyrall" was admitted free of the guild in 1467-8, and paid a fine of xx^s; also a John Wyrall was churchwarden of St. Chad's, Shrewsbury, in 1467-8. (Salop Arch. Soc., viii., pp. 269, 268; see also 'Herald and Genealogist,' vi., p. 323.)

† These are the arms of Wyrrall of Byknor, co. Gloucester (Visitations 1683 and 1625). The error in attaching them to this pedigree seems to have arisen at the Shropshire Visitation of 1584. (See Add. MS. 14,814, fo. 13, where, at the top of the sheet, there appears in pencil the word "Yorkes," as if the Herald thought it should have been entered in that county, instead of in Salop.)

This coat and crest were granted, or more probably confirmed, by Barker, 29 Hen. VIII. (1537-8), to "Gervase Wirrall of . . . in com. Ebor." In Edmondson's 'Heraldry,' following Harl. MS. 1359, the chief is sable, and the same is attributed to Wyrrall of Loversal, Ebor., in an old MS. at Melbury, in the possession of the Earl of Leicester. (Arch. Journal, xv., p. 171.)

BENARTON]; 6, Argent, a fesse [chevron] between three crescents gules, IPSTONES.*

CREST.—A wolf passant sable.

[In a list of Banners, temp. Henry VIII. ('Coll. Top. et Gen.,' iii., 61) is that of William Yonge, being "white, charged with two roses gules; the device a wolf sable, the dexter forepaw resting on a man's head couped proper crowned or lying at the foot of a tree vert fructed or," evidently alluding to the legend of St. Edmund, King and Martyr. The banner is doubtless that of William Yonge, Sheriff of Salop 1548.]

* In Harl. MS. 14,314, Margaret is entered as sister of Thomas, but Elizabeth, Dorothy, Alice, Anne, and Edith are given as his daughters by Beatrix. Wainwright says that Thomas married, secondly, . . . da. of Grosvener of Salop, and, thirdly, Frances, da. of Christopher Mallorye.

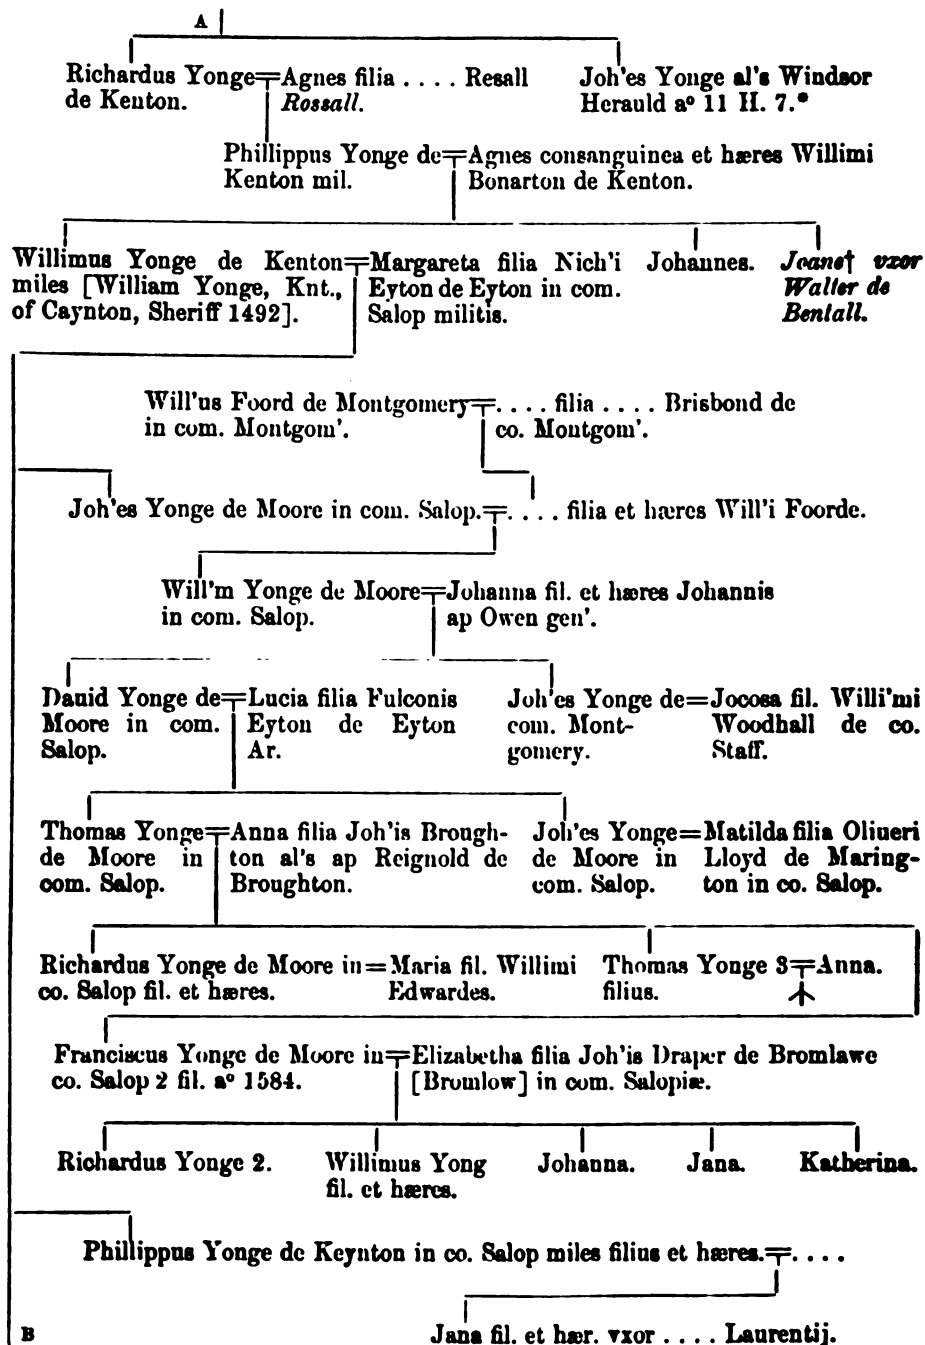

† Wainwright, in his 'History of Shropshire and Titchfield,' p. 181, states that Dorothy married Francis Copley of Nether Hall, Esq.

‡ See note § on p. 516.

§ Harl. MS. 1487 and Wainwright, pp. 131, 132.

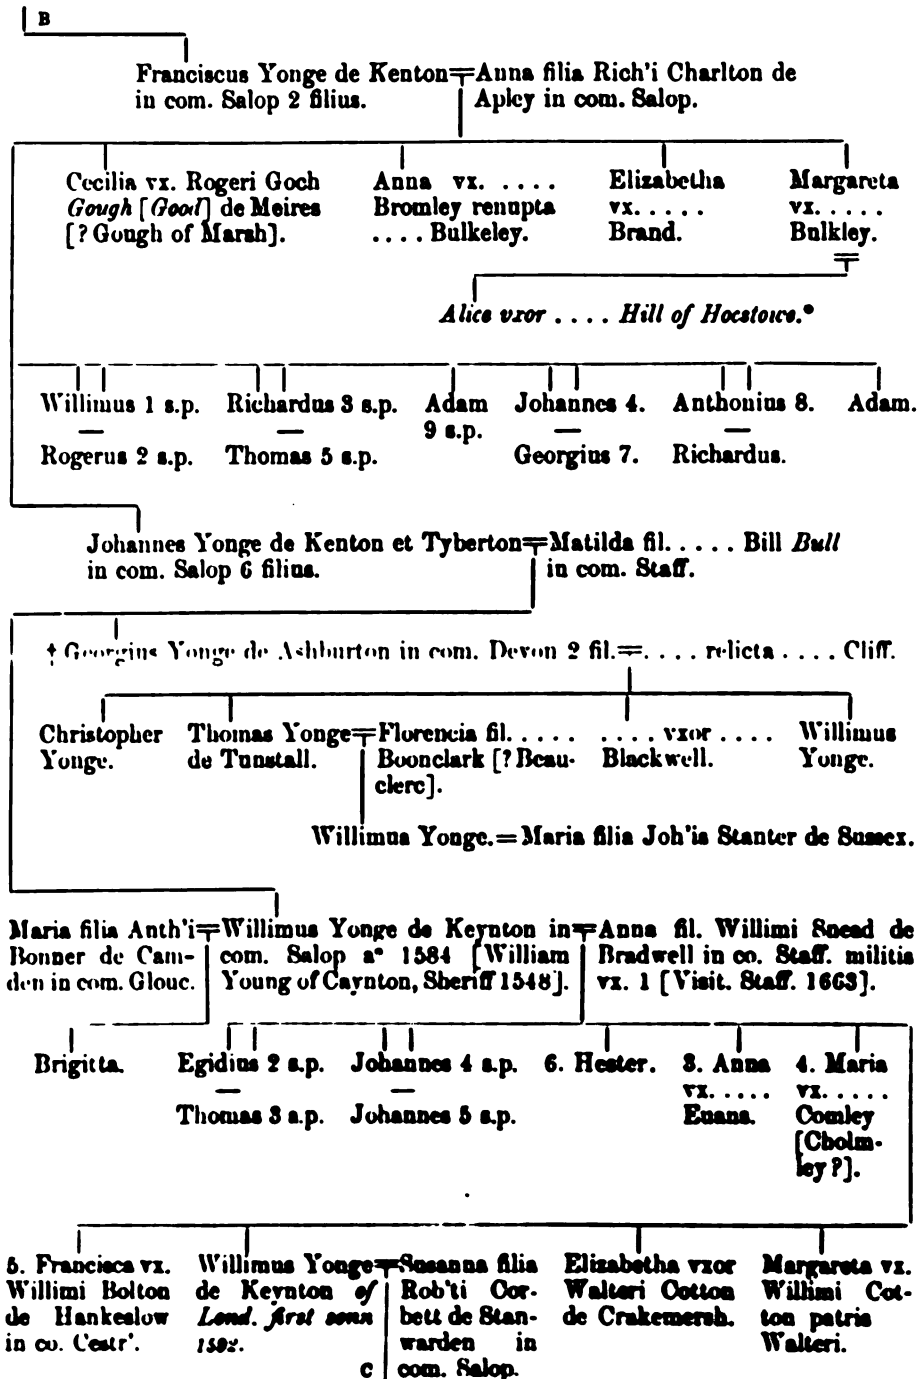

¶ Hugh is said to be st. 12 in 1565, and grandson of Thomas Wyrrell of Lovershall, in Lane-downe MS. 190.

¶ Blakeway says Beatrix was daughter of William de Caynton, who was Sheriff of Salop in 1346.

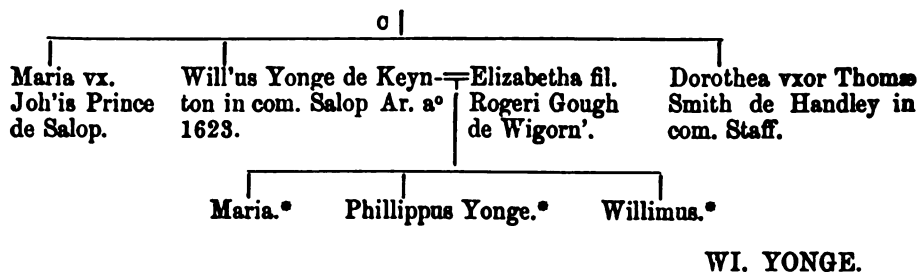

* Noble ('Hist. Coll. of Arms,' pp. 89 and 124) says John Younge, son of Thomas and grandson of Jeffrey Younge, by Editha, da. of Urian St. Pere, died Somerset Herald 1510, and was buried at Brentford; and that Lant's Roll in error described him as Windsor Herald, and that he bore for arms, Azure, three dragons argent armed and langued gules.
